Comments: All the wards are devoid of Treatment rooms. The demonstration rooms are one small room with one bed only. There is no facility for the accommodation of 25 students to sit and learn. The Pantry is one room with no facilities for the distribution of food to the patients. The Nursing stations are combined for 2-3 ward wings. Each ward consists of wings with 15-20 beds- totaling to 50-70 Beds. Most of the patients with minor ailments are admitted as indoor patients. Both male and female patients are admitted in H shaped ward in Respiratory Medicine. There is no separation between them. Female patients of Dermatology are kept in the same ward with females having new born babies(PNC). In paediatric ward, some beds are not numbered. There is duplication of numbers in some wards.
